The 19th International Conference on Fusion Reactor Materials (ICFRM-19)

27 October – 1 November 2019

Hyatt Regency La Jolla at Aventine

3777 La Jolla Village Drive, San Diego, CA 92122, USA; Phone +1(858)552-1234

Researchers from around the world will assemble in La Jolla, CA for the 19th International Conference on Fusion Reactor Materials (ICFRM-19). ICFRM is the premier international conference on materials for harnessing nuclear fusion energy. The scope ranges from fundamental materials science to engineering materials. Topics include:

- Advanced materials development and qualification, including fabrication and joining methods.
- Divertor and plasma facing applications.
- Fusion-specific applications of materials, including environmental effects.
- Materials engineering and testing in ITER, neutron sources, accelerators, and other test systems.
- The materials design interface, codes, and standards.
- Modeling, theory, and fundamental studies of radiation effects, including advanced characterization methods.
- Cross cutting issues and synergism with other materials applications.

Join us and take this excellent opportunity to

- increase visibility of your company
- show your products and services
- seek international partners and form new alliances
- attract new talents
- position your organization and spotlight key executives
